the following vessels were observed in the Gdynia naval harbor:

- a. Two landing craft moored to the pier.
- b. Two small submarines, about 30 meters long; they each had entirely level decks, no anti-net cables, a small tower fitted with something like a railing around it, and a periscope on and aft of the tower. Both flew the Polish naval ensign.
- c. At the Paris Commune Shipyard, two submarines were being scrapped; the towers were off and the decks were being torn up.
